

Teaching

Clinic Professor, UCLA (Harbor-University of California, Los Angeles, Department of OB/GYN May 2010-present, Director of Minimally Invasive Surgery-Las Vegas Rotation, Centennial Hills Hospital and Medical Center

Assistant Clinical Professor - Department of Family & Community Medicine, Pediatrics, and Internal Medicine, University of Nevada School of Medicine. July 2001-present.

Director – LVMIS (Las Vegas Minimally Invasive Surgery) at Centennial Hills Hospital and Medical Center, Clinical Instructor, Professional education fellowship. June 2007-Present.

Assistant Clinical Professor - Part-time clinical instructor providing gynecological and obstetric lectures to medical students, residents and faculty. Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology, University of Nevada School of Medicine. November 2001-2004.

Procedures Facilitator (Rotation Advisor) - Advanced Office Gynecology Technologies – I developed a formal SIS (saline infusion sonohysterography) and office hysteroscopy training program at the University of Nevada School of Medicine, Dept. Ob/Gyn, under the supervision and guidance of select clinical faculty. This rotation is to teach new technologies never offered before to 3rd and 4th year residents. Funding was acquired through educational support from Olympus Instruments of America, Inc. and University Medical Center Hospital, Las Vegas, NV. March 1999 - 2004.

Course Director - Advanced Hysteroscopy and Alternatives to Hysterectomy for Challenging Gynecologic Problems. A post-graduate surgical course in which I developed and gave lectures on surgical topics. University of Nevada School of Medicine, University Medical Center Hospital, Las Vegas, NV. March 1998.

Clinical Instructor - Southern Nevada Area Health Education Center. 1998 EMS Conferences: Responding to Trauma in Rural Nevada. (Dealing with Abnormal Deliveries and Stabilization of the Newborn. Sunrise Hospital and Sunrise Children's Hospital, Las Vegas, NV. September 26- 27, 1998 - 2002.

Technical Preceptor - Olympus Instruments, Inc. Contracted to teach new hysteroscopic technologies to physicians and act as an advisor in the development of new instrumentation. April 1998 - present.

Clinical Instructor - Reproductive anatomy and physiology. This is a course designed for paramedics. University Medical Center Hospital, Southern Nevada Area Health Education Center, Las Vegas, NV. June 1999 - present.

PAST Assistant Professor - Full-time professor providing, weekly gynecological and obstetric rounds, grand rounds, medical student and resident lectures, and journal club activities. Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology, University of Nevada School of Medicine. July, 2001 - November 2002.

Resident Physician Lecturer - Development and presentation of various topics in women's healthcare. Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology, University of Nevada School of Medicine. June, 1997- July, 2001.

Adjunct Faculty Lecturer - Biochemistry 530 (Advanced Topics in Biochemistry: protein structure). Department of Biochemistry and Molecular Biology, University of North Dakota, School of Medicine and Health Sciences. Spring 1996-1997.

Graduate Research Assistant - Development and presentation of lectures and practical instruction in the methodology of biochemical assays, protein purification, cytochemistry, and in vitro gene expression. Department of Biochemistry and Molecular Biology, University of North Dakota School of Medicine and Health Sciences. 1994-1997.

Graduate Teaching Assistant - Biochemistry 301L. Department of Biochemistry and Molecular Biology, University of North Dakota, School of Medicine and Health Sciences. This was a clinical laboratory course with lectures for medical technology students. I prepared formal lectures, administered quizzes, and wrote exam questions. Other responsibilities included teaching students in the use of instrumentation, setting up laboratory experiments, and observing students in the laboratory. Spring 1992.